

Message from Kevin McCourt

Hello and welcome to McCourts. We hope you enjoy our website, and find it interesting. Please do contact us if we can help in any way.

We are committed to getting people to work together to the benefit of all concerned - that is our business and my personal goal. We know that high performing teams are essential for businesses and organisations to grow effectively and we know how to bring this about. Effective teamworking is like any other skill: it can be learned. However, like any other skill it takes know-how and practice. We can provide the know-how and we invite you to give us a try.

We have recently launched a series of public courses to provide a taster for those who are interested in seeing what we are about and in learning the basics. Please contact us if you would like more information.

Our clients continue to be delighted with the work that we do and we continue to be dedicated to our founding principle: using our skills to develop co-operation to mutual benefit .
